News and information

Our next event is the AGM on Friday the 28th. 6.30 for 7pm in the Wattle room please. Items on the agenda include, but are not limited to, the election of the committee and the 2023/24 calendar. Members are reminded they need to be financial to vote at the AGM.

As indicated in last months newsletter, there is no fishing event with the way the holidays have fallen this year. Depending the outcomes of the AGM we will endeavour to hold an in house dinner and local event next month.

I have looked into members being able to direct debit to the section for fees and events. This has been trialled and worked well. You will need to see me individually as I am a bit hesitant in making the account details public. I do ask that you please put your name and what the payment is for when you make the payment, just to make the accounting easier.

Eden, what can I say. 22 adults and 3 children made the annual pilgrimage to this fantastic location. It is amazing the differences in trip times depending on which part of the mountains you want to cross. Some went through Jindabyne-Cooma while others went Tumut-Cooma. Members got out every day although it was a bit rough out wider on Sunday but there was still places to fish and most got amongst the fish. A few sharks were caught with most being released or they managed to free themselves at the boat. One school shark was kept, hope it is tasty. Some of the stand out fish were a 500mm flathead. The school shark went 970mm and one of the bronze whalers caught was around the same length. The best snapper went 410mm. The best tailor and Morwong were both 400mm. The overall ladies winner was Viv with 34 points and the overall men's winner was Adrian with 123 points. Well done to all who weighed fish. The presentation dinner went over well with roast chicken and pork along with garlic baked spuds and salad on offer. The fancy dress was also well supported with a wide variety of costumes. I do not have room to include all the good photos taken but have selected some of the better ones.

Happy birthday to the following member/members: Adrian and Kevin

Memberships are now due for the 2023/24 season. Please pay promptly.
