News and information

Our next event is Nillahcootie staying at the Midland caravan park, please book early. Target species for the weekend are Trout, redfin (good luck), Golden perch and Murray cod. Names to me or a committee member by Tuesday the 28th please for catering.

The following event is the Christmas party on Saturday the 16th dec at the mother club. 6.30 for 7pm please. I need names for this event so I can advise the Mother club of numbers by the 12th Dec. Members are reminded that the till for all events is not open until the committee open it. This is usually after all members are present at the event. Once the till has been opened, drinks are in accordance with what the mother club provides when they put drinks on, e.g. tap beer, house wine and soft drink.

As this will be the last newsletter for the year, on behalf of the committee, I wish you all a merry Christmas and a prosperous new year.

Jindabyne, by all accounts was an excellent weekend with good weather, even a bit of fog on the Saturday morning. The fishing was consistent with a lot of little rainbows and some very nice brown. One luck member managed to catch a tagged trout, good luck in the monthly draw to win a prize. It was a long drive home for the members due to an accident on the Alpine way and it being blocked.

Results for the weekend are as follows:-

Men's best bag, Adrian, 9 fish, 6.47kg

Men's best brown, Brendan, 1.81kg

Men's best rainbow, Brian, 1.19kg

Consolation, Jeff

Again the ladies were unsuccessful, this seems to be becoming a trait at this event.

Well done to all who presented fish.

Happy birthday to the following member/members
